TV'S FAVORITE DARK PRINCESS DROPS HER "BOTOX DEADPAN" GLARE AND TELLS ALL ABOUT CHRIS PRATT, DEFENDS CHARLIE SHEEN AND DREAMS ABOUT A LIFE OF CRIME

Q1

PLAYBOY: When you began filming the final season of Parks and Recreation, your TV husband, Chris Pratt (who plays Andy), had in real life just anchored last year's biggest movie, Guardians of the Galaxy. How did success go to the head of one of the nicest guys around?

PLAZA: He forgot my name, which is the weirdest thing about the whole situation. I guess when you're the star of a Marvel movie and super, super famous and you're flown all over the world, you meet so many people that your ability to pay attention is gone. So yeah, he forgot my name. I mean my real name, not my character April on the show. I had to keep reminding him, and he'd say, "Oh right. Right, right." But I don't fault him, because being a movie star is hard. They say that movie stars meet 60 times more people than the average person, so of course your brain gets cloudy. I don't hold that against him. I think he's great. [laughs]

None of that is true, by the way. You told me it would be okay to lie. Chris did not forget my name. He's the kindest, most
